Adenauer Demands Complete Sovereignty

Sen. Wiley Backs Stand Of Regime

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany raised her terms Thursday for contributing to the Western military alliance by demanding "full and undiminished" sovereignty.

Freed to barter with the West over Germany's future defense role by France's rejection of the six-nation army plan, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government served notice the limited freedom promised by the Big Three in the Bonn peace contract will not be enough.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) voiced support of this stand. The chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the U. S. Senate, who conferred with Adenauer at the Chancellor's vacation retreat in the Black Forest, told newsmen, "West Germany must have full sovereignty restored forthwith."

Wiley, whose committee will have to approve any formal treaty settlement between the United States and West Germany, said "freedom and liberty require West Germany to march shoulder to shoulder with the free nations."

In London, British officials said probably the Western German demands for full equality status stand little chance of early acceptance. The British Foreign Office declined formal comment.

Other developments Thursday in the continuing reaction to the French move included:

1. In Washington, top U.S. officials tended to favor an emergency meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization foreign ministers in New York late this month to seek agreement on West Germany's role in Western defense.

Most of these officials regarded the most workable solution as NATO membership, with some safeguards to prevent a revival of militarism when West Germany is permitted to rearm.

2. In Paris, a French Foreign Ministry spokesman welcomed a British suggestion for an eight-power conference on German rearmament to lay the groundwork for the NATO Council. The eight would be the United States, Britain, and the six signers of the EDC treaty — West Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg.

3. Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak replied to charges in the French Assembly that the five other EDC signers had isolated France at the recent Brussels conference which rejected French demands to drastic changes in the EDC treaty. Spaak said the other countries had shown France "all the understanding and conciliation which she was entitled to claim."

France's chief goal was to eliminate the supranational features of the treaty which would have brought 12 German divisions into a unified European army.

False Prophets Aid Commies; Meek

CHESTER, Ill. (P) — Joseph T. Meek said Thursday night that "prophets of gloom and doom xxx were aiding and abetting the Communist party in their efforts to overthrow our government."

"These dupes, if not soon prevented, could unwittingly accomplish what the Communists have been trying to accomplish by the use of force, violence and sabotage," Meek, the Republican senatorial nominee, said in a talk for the Randolph County Republican Organization.

"These false prophets warn us that we are in danger of collapse if we don't do something," Meek went on. The April, 1953, issue of the Democratic Digest puts their arms in capsule form. Their head 'Swami,' Paul Douglas, is quoted therein as saying: 'I know full well that virtually the only thing that would turn the Republic out of power politically in the near future and restore us Democrats to power would be an economic depression.'

Douglas, Democratic senator from Illinois, is Meek's opponent for the senate seat.

TO HOLD TALKS ON MISSILE STATIONS

TORONTO (P) — The Toronto Star said Thursday in a Windsor dispatch that conferences are scheduled to open soon between Canadian and U. S. officials on establishment of a screen of guided missile stations in southern Ontario.

Attlee Rejects Mao's Bid For Anti-U.S. Campaign

HONG KONG (P) — Former Prime Minister Clement Attlee said Thursday he tossed the ball back to Mao Tse-tung when the Red Chinese boss urged him to campaign for a new U. S. foreign policy. Attlee told a news conference he advised Mao to get the Russians to mend their ways.

In his first report on 18 days behind the bamboo curtain with seven other touring British Laborites, Attlee declared he suggested Mao use his influence to stop Soviet infiltration of other nations.

When Mao asked him to try to persuade the United States to pull out of the Formosa straits and stop rearming Germany and Japan, Attlee said he countered that Mao should try to get the Soviet Union to free her satellite states. He also told Mao to work for a reduction in Soviet arms and greater freedom for Soviet citizens.

Police Hold Three Of Four Suspects In $5,000 Robbery

CHICAGO (P) — Three of four men believed implicated in a $5,000 robbery in Montsanto, Ill., Aug. 27, were in police custody Thursday.

Held at the detective bureau is John "Red" Wolfe, 50, Suburban Cicero police have Harold Leroy Rench, 26, of nearby Stickney. And downtown Canton police have seized Walter Wheeler, 36, of Canton.

A cab driver's tipoff after spotting a 38 caliber revolver in a passenger's pocket enabled Cicero police to pick up Rench.

Cicero Police Lieut. Roland Brani said Rench orally admitted his part in the robbery of Lee Julian's tavern in Montsanto. Brani said Rench implicated Wolfe, Wheeler and a fourth man, giving a variety of names for him.

Wolfe and Wheeler were taken into custody on this information but denied any part in the robbery during which Julian, about 65, was slugged when he refused to open a safe containing $20,000 for the cashing of checks of employees of the Monsanto Chemical Co.

Cicero police said Rench will be turned over to officials of St. Clair County where, they said, he is charged with armed robbery.

Tape Recordings Given As Evidence In Fleming Trial

PT. SHERIDAN, Ill. (P) — A tape recording of Communist propaganda broadcasts in which Lt. Col. Harry Fleming allegedly took part was introduced Thursday in his court-martial trial.

Fleming is being tried on charges of collaborating with the enemy during the Korean War.

Four recordings were scheduled for closed session hearing outside the court after Fleming's defense counsel objected to their introduction as evidence.

The first one to be heard was ruled as inadmissible; the other three will be heard Friday by the presiding officer and counsel for both sides.

In the recording admitted, Fleming is alleged to have appealed to President Truman and Gen. MacArthur to withdraw from Korea in 1951, and to have asked the United Nations forces for peace.

Albert E. LaFrance, Fleming's attorney and also from Racine, Wis., contended the four recordings are "incompetent evidence."

The recordings purportedly contain the voices of Fleming and other POWs of Camp 12 which were broadcast during April 1951 on Red radio in North Korea.

Politicians Test Wind For '56

GOP Centers On 'I Like Ike'

CINCINNATI (P) — President Eisenhower is going to face almost unanimous demands from Republican party organization leaders that he run again in 1956 despite any reluctance he may display on that score.

Although none of the delegates to the workshop conference of the Republican National Committee, which wound up sessions here Wednesday, professed to know anything about the President's future plans, they left no doubt they want another "I-Like-Ike" campaign two years from now.

There still are some sore spots in the Republican organization about patronage. Some Republicans are grumbling Eisenhower is too "liberal" — a complaint of which Vice President Nixon took public notice.

A few supporters and a few critics of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) don't like the way the President has handled the party problems presented by the senator.

But the 1952 pre-convention cleavage between the backers of Eisenhower and the backers of Eisenhower seeking reelection.

MANILA, Friday (P) — At least 82 persons were killed Thursday when a logging train went out of control on a downgrade, the Philippine News Service reported Friday.

Bishop Sheil Quits As Head Of CYO; Keeps Presidency

CHICAGO (P) — Bishop Bernard J. Sheil resigned Thursday as head of the Catholic Youth Organization here.

He left unanswered the question whether his outspoken stand on public affairs had anything to do with his action.

In addresses and writings the bishop frequently has expressed opinions which some observers feel are outside the province of a churchman.

In the spring he addressed the CIO United Auto Workers convention and called Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) "a headline hunter" and "sucker from Appleton." He pleaded for less hysteria in ferreting out Communists and adherence to the rule of morals that no end, however good, justifies illicit means to achieve it.

Legion Head Backs Conventions Ruling To Fight Communism

WASHINGTON (P) — The American Legion wound up its 36th annual convention Thursday with demands for a strong hand against communism at home and abroad, and elected a new national commander who pledged to keep up the fight.

Seaborn P. Collins, Jr., of Las Cruces, N. M., the unanimous choice for commander, declared in his acceptance speech:

"The American Legion is the object of bitter Communist hatred and in a sense this hatred is a measure of our success."

An unrelenting fight against Communist infiltration and subversion in the United States, Collins said, is one of the Legion's vitally important activities.

The new commander, a businessman who flew the "Hump" of the Himalaya Mountains in World War II, also said his administration would push programs for medical and hospital care for veterans, child welfare services and a universal military training system.

In one of its resolutions, the Legion convention called for a U. S. warning that any further Communist aggression in Southeast Asia "will bring forth immediate military retaliation with or without the cooperation of the other free nations."

Right down to the end, the convention ground out anti-Communist resolutions. Among the late ones: That Congress should enlarge the definition of treason so as to include peacetime conspiracy to overthrow the government and make it punishable by penalties up to execution.

That the Justice Department be given authority to use wire-tapping evidence in disloyalty and treason cases, and that it expedite the deportation of criminal aliens.

In another major resolution, the legion suggested that America seriously consider breaking off diplomatic relations with Russia.

"The American Legion," it said, "will never accept the principle of coexistence with gangsters, atheists, ruffians and murderers."

On the domestic scene, the Legionnaire called for resolution for full support and unlimited investigative power for congressional committees investigating communism and subversion.

These include the Senate Investigations Subcommittee headed by Sen. McCarthy, the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee led by Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) and the House Committee on Un-American Activities, headed by Rep. Velde (R-Ill.).

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U. S. representative to the U. N. told the convention the United States will do everything in its power to prevent the admission of Red China to the U. N.

George I. Quimby, curator of North American archaeology and ethnology, found the oil painting of an Indian in white man's garb in a storeroom where it has been kept since it was acquired by the museum in 1894.

It was one of 35 paintings once owned by Gen. William Clark, member of the Lewis and Clark expedition which mapped the first route to the Oregon Territory, and purchased by the museum from Emily O'Fallon of St. Louis.

The painting is not signed. Quimby said descriptions of Tecumseh, an old letter from Miss O'Fallon saving Tecumseh's portrait was among the 35 paintings led him to believe the portrait was of the old warrior.

Tecumseh was commissioned a British brigadier general for attacking the United States in the War of 1812.

"Such a painting would fill a gap in history as no true portrait of the Indian warrior and statesman, called the most extraordinary Indian character in history, ever has come to light," Quimby said.

Dirksen Fights Evidence In On All 5 Charges

PEKIN, Ill. (P) — Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said today he is fighting against an 11th hour attempt to obtain a presidential veto of increased diversion of Lake Michigan water into the Illinois Waterway.

In an interview, the senator said Gov. Walter Kohler of Wisconsin and Sen. Ferguson (R of Michigan) are "bringing considerable heat" on President Eisenhower to veto the diversion bill, passed late in the recent session of Congress.

The bulk of the opposition to the bill is coming from Milwaukee and Detroit shippers, Dirksen said. The measure before the President authorizes the Chicago Sanitary District to increase the flow from Lake Michigan from 1,500 cubic feet a second to 2,500.

Shipping interests contend greater diversion would lower lake levels and impede ship movement.

"The President knows how hard I have worked to get this bill through and how uneasy I would feel if it is vetoed," Dirksen said. He added it is an "emergency matter" for Illinois because of recent water shortages downstate.

THE POOL MEANT MORE THIS SUMMER!

The highly successful season at the Nichols Park swimming pool, despite what at first seemed an overwhelming obstacle, is an outstanding illustration of what can be accomplished by unselfish civic teamwork. Many groups and individuals had a part in making it possible for the pool to function at peak efficiency without any drain upon the city's restricted water supply.

During the intense heat of the past summer, when record breaking crowds of children and adults sought relief and recreation, the comment was frequently heard: "Wouldn't it have been a shame if the pool had been closed this summer?"

Never before in park history have so many people used the pool. Never has it meant so much to the community.

The problem of how to get the pool in operation without breaking down the city's strict water conservation measures was not an easy one to solve. It required a great deal of extra effort. But in the end, through public acceptance, it proved extremely worthwhile.

The community owes sincere thanks to the men and women who participated in the pool project this year. The members of the Park Board, John Agger, Ray Steinheimer, Louis Cain, Edward Alexander, and C. R. Reinhardt, took the lead in trying to work out a feasible plan so the pool could operate. The Junior Chamber of Commerce took an active interest in the project. So did several citizens. Bill Fanning made arrangements with the Rogers Cartage Company for the furnishing of a large tank free of charge. This tank was utilized all through the season for the purpose of storing water for showers. The Caldwell Engineering Company hauled water from Meredosia so that there would be no necessity of depleting the regular city supply.

Recognizing the importance of the pool in the recreational life of the community, the City Council approved the plan and authorized the operation of the pool. And thus, in a period of severe drouth and heat, it became possible for thousands to enjoy swimming in one of the finest pools in the middlewest.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (U-P)—How many people in America today are afraid of teen-agers? physically afraid, I mean.

Teen-agers in every generation have annoyed or amused their elders, and generally been written off as pretty worthless (unless there happened to be a war on, and they were needed to carry guns).

Of course, this never was really true and few really believed it. If every crop of teen-agers was worse than the one before, the human race would have lost out long ago.

But it does seem some strange kind of mental bug is infecting our young. Parental authority is crumbling. Juvenile delinquency is growing. The kid gangs of yore used to think they were pretty daring when they joined in mass fist fights or made a midnight raid on a watermelon patch; the kid gangs today have gone a long step farther. They want to rob a grocery store, steal a car, carry a shiv, ambush a group and kick him into a pulp.

The other night I was walking with my wife on a Manhattan street. A group of teenage boys approached in full uniform — t-shirts and blue jeans. They were laughing, mauling each other and shouting boisterously, as cubs have done since time began.

"Don't say anything to them," said Frances, clutching my arm nervously.

Since then I have heard several women say they were afraid to go out unescorted in the evening, and men complain "nobody's really safe on the street at night anymore because of those crazy kids."

If that is the situation here, then the same feeling must exist — to a smaller or greater extent — in dozens of other cities across the United States. For New York has no monopoly on kid gangs or juvenile delinquency.

How many adult Americans right now are actually physically afraid of teen-agers? Undoubtedly more than at any previous period. But it is a bitter commentary on our civilization that so many of us should regard in fear today the generation that is our only hope of tomorrow.

You can't condemn all teen-agers because a few learn the art of mayhem before they learn a trade, and get their laughs by clobbering strangers unconscious and dumping them into a river. The frightening thing is these examples of brutality aren't isolated.

Juvenile delinquency no longer is an adolescent pimple on our society. It is a spreading adolescent cancer.

By the time these kill-for-thrills teen-agers explode, it is too late. Neither the storm shelter of psychiatry nor the electric chair offers much of a real solution then.

It isn't a repair job. It's a problem of prevention. Some folks feel that if you switch a child off enough when it is young you won't have to pull an electric switch on it later, but that makes it altogether too simple. Science must find a way to detect early in life with their parents the responsibility of seeing they are helped to go right at a time when they can still be helped — before they explode and blow their own lives, and perhaps other lives, to pieces.

Who wants to go on being half-afraid of his neighbor's teenage kids — and, often, his own?

HOLLYWOOD (U-P)—Irving Berlin hasn't had a new hit song in 3½ years, but he isn't complaining.

Some songwriters are. They claim that their established talents are passed up by the record companies and disc jockeys in favor of unknown writers of novelty songs. The issue has even reached the courts. But Berlin is staying out of it.

"Sure, I haven't had a hit since I did 'Call Me Madam,'" said the veteran songsmith. "I put out a couple of songs that I thought were pretty good. One of them, 'For the Very First Time,' was recorded by Tony Martin, and I thought it was a good ballad. But it never got off the ground."

"For the past 3½ years, I have been living off my ASCAP fees (payment when a song is performed). They tell me there are more pianos being sold than ever before, but people don't buy sheet music. My music publishing firm doesn't make money."

"But I don't think you can knock the songs you hear today. I think songs like 'Tennessee Waltz' and 'Goodnight Irene' are as good as any you can find. Sure, there are a lot of crazy songs, but we had 'em in the old days, too."

"I wrote things like 'Sadie Salome, Go Home' and 'When Yiddie Plays His Fiddle.' A guy comes along with a trick title like 'We Have No Bananas' and it's a hit. It's cure, you know, just."

Berlin will doubtless get back in the hit column this fall when his new film, "White Christmas," is released. He has several new songs in the show. He believes three: "Count Your Blessings," "Love, You Didn't Do Right by Me," "The Best Things Happen While You're Dancing" — have hit possibilities.

ALL'S WELL

KANSAS CITY (U-P)—A A Keeling likes to have plenty of water for his garden, but not at the steep water rates in Johnson County. And once he decided to dig his own well, 15 feet of solid rock and a chorus of neighborly derision couldn't stop him.

Keeling guessed there was water beneath his basement when he noticed that a hydrangea bush near his garage was blooming despite a searing drought last summer.

He devoted six months of spare-time labor to the project, which cost him $25. He improvised tools as he went along. To cut through the layers of rock he used bits made of iron from an old railroad car axle. To drop bits against the rock he rigged up an apparatus consisting, larkily, of a carpenter's horse and a 12-foot plank acting as a lever.

Now he pipes abundant water to his garden.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (U-P)—Pierre Mendes-France, French premier and foreign minister, is an active man, swift and smart. He may find he was too active, too swift, and too smart.

He must take ultimate responsibility for the French Assembly's killing EDC — the European Defense Community — another name for the idea of a single European army.

Killing EDC put the Western Allies in a mess. Mendes-France may have felt this put France in a better position to bargain with them and therefore, from the French viewpoint, was shrewd business.

But the Allies reacted quickly: they want out of the mess in a hurry. The solution, if they ever find one, will take months or longer. In the end the French may wish they had bought EDC in the first place.

Mendes-France showed his speed early. He was in office only a month when he got a truce with the Communists in the eight-year-old Indochina war. Then he quieted the turbulent Tunisians, long under the French thumb, by offering home rule.

Next he turned to EDC, which called for France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands to give up their national armies and pool them in a single European army under a unified command.

The United States and Britain urgently wanted EDC not only because it would unify defense against Russia on the Continent but would bring West Germany, with her manpower, into that defense as a Western military ally.

Although this meant letting Germany rearm, her manpower would be in a single army with her neighbors. She could have no national army. The French themselves had proposed this four years ago.

They signed an agreement on it, although there could be no EDC until the French Parliament and those of the other five nations approved. But in those two years no French premier until Mendes-France wanted to take a chance on a vote in Parliament.

The French politicians had developed: (A) fear of a Germany rearm in any way; (B) fear that even though EDC was under unified command the Germans someday would control it; and (C) a yearning to keep a French national army.

Since Russia didn't want an EDC or a rearm Germany, the Communists in the French Parliament fought it too. Nevertheless, Mendes-France put the question up to the Assembly. The vote was no.

It might have been different if he himself had pitched for EDC or even maneuvered a delay until support for EDC could be built up. He did neither.

In letting the Assembly wreck EDC, he may have figured:

Rather than face the aspect of no EDC at all, the British, under American prodding, might now be willing to join EDC, which they have so far refused to do.

If that was his reasoning, he may have been shocked by what followed.

West Germany — still occupied by the troops of the United States, Britain and France which retain the right to disarm her — has announced its wants both independence and the right to rearm, somehow.

The British Cabinet, in an emergency meeting yesterday, decided to push for limited German armament, and Secretary of State Dulles, who called the French defeat of EDC a tragedy, said this week the Western nations owe it to West Germany to let her have sovereignty and to let her rearm to some degree.

At the moment three courses seem open:

1. France could reconsider and agree on EDC.

2. A smaller EDC — minus France but including West Germany, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands and Italy — might be set up.

3. Or West Germany might be allowed to rearm — perhaps within agreed limits — and become the 15th member of NATO, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, of which the United States, France and Britain are members.

Mendes-France may have foreseen the unhappiness of the Western Allies and because of it try to strike a bargain that will please the French. He might be willing to buy No. 1 without a bargain if No. 2 or No. 3 appears likely to happen.

Dr. 'O' Again—Pennant Predictions—Tough Job—Political Plum Plot Nipped

By PETER EDSON
Written for NEA Service

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The Oppenheimer case is being restudied. The 990-page, fingerprint record of hearings before a three-man board headed by President Gordon Gray of University of North Carolina, which went into every phase of Atomic-Scientist J. Robert Oppenheimer's fitness for top-secret clearance has been referred to the new Internal Security division of Department of Justice.

It is headed by new Assistant Attorney General William F. Tompkins, who has been given charge of all government security cases. Under his direction, the Oppenheimer record will be re-examined to see if it contains the basis for false statements, perjury, espionage or other charges against any of the individuals mentioned in the Atomic Energy Commission's report.

The Oppenheimer case was before the Department of Justice from July to December of 1953, when the lifting of his "Q" security clearance was being considered and denial of his access to top secret material was ordered by AEC. In March Dr. Oppenheimer requested a security board hearing and the Gray board was set up to handle it.

In April, the Gray board found 16 of 24 charges of past associations with Communists or Communist causes true or substantially true. The case is now closed as far as AEC is concerned. Any further action will be up to new findings of the Department of Justice Internal Security division.

In the Congressional session windup, while the House was waiting for the Senate to catch up on unfinished business, several of the representatives took time to do a little predicting — not on the outcome of the November elections, which would be normal, but on the World Series.

To Be a Real Person, Don't Try to Be 'Perfect' Woman

In the last 20 years American women have been told how to be just about everything under the sun, but the one really important thing, "How to be yourself."

Weighted down by all the other "how to..." advice, women are so busy trying to be good mothers, good wives, charming hostesses, intelligent conversationalists, good managers, and glamor girls—all at one and the same time—that they have mostly forgotten what they are and what they want out of life.

They are trying so hard to please other people—bosses, husbands, friends, children—that they rarely have time to please themselves.

Consequently when you get in a crowd of women, only a few will stand out as individuals. The rest will talk, look and act so much in "character" that you get the feeling they even think alike.

TO BE DIFFERENT, BE YOURSELF

When so many other things are expected of a woman, how can she hang onto her own individuality? How can she manage to be a real and genuine person?

The first step is by refusing to try to follow a pattern cut out for her by someone else.

If she'll ask "Is this necessary?" of everything she is doing and trying to do, she will find she can cut out a lot of nonessential activity.

She'll be better friends with herself if she quits trying so hard to be a "perfect" this or a "perfect" something else.

Her husband married a woman—not a perfect wife. Her children were born to a woman—not to a perfect mother. Her friends should regard her as a woman—not as a perfect hostess. So maybe she had better concentrate her efforts on being a warm-hearted, relaxed, happy woman instead of a perfect anything.

Eventually she will get around to wondering what she wants for herself out of life, and will wake up to the fact that if she doesn't take time to get even a small share of what she wants, it is never going to be hers. Once she starts thinking and acting like a woman instead of like a candidate for most perfect this or that—she'll start being a real person.

Rep. Francis E. Dorn (R-N.Y.) who represents the 12th district which is solid Brooklyn territory, started it. "Since the session is drawing to a close," he said, "I wish to call to the attention of members of the House particularly my colleagues from New York City and Wisconsin, that it is important they contact the management of the Brooklyn baseball team, if they want World Series tickets."

Rep. Herman P. Eberharter (D-Pa.) was quick to note that the Pittsburgh Pirates, though still in last place, "took it upon themselves to put a little stumbling block in the way of Brooklyn's winning streak."

Then Rep. Alvin E. O'Konski (R-Wis.) took issue with the distinguished statesman from Brooklyn. "I think the gentleman has committed a terrible error, because the World Series is going to be played at Milwaukee County Stadium," he said.

Rep. Albert P. Morano (R-Conn.) had the last word. "I think you are both wrong," he said. "The New York Giants will win the pennant."

Attorney General Herbert Brownell's chief assistants were waiting in his big, high-ceilinged and wood-paneled reception room for their regular staff conference.

Most of them had been sitting up nights with congressional friends, holding their hands and nursing along last-minute legislation in which they were vitally interested.

All complained about the long hours they had been putting in, which they never did in private law practice.

"They tell me," observed one of the group with a wary smile, "that in the Communist Party, they can order a man to leave his home, divorce his wife, give up his job and move way off somewhere to do anything they want him to do."

"You know, that's almost as bad as working for the U. S. government,"

Congress specifically knocked out a part of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson's reorganization plan for the 9000 county ASC—Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation—committees.

Under the Benson plan, next year no more than one committeeman could be elected who had served more than three years. In 1956, no committeeman could be elected who had served more than three years.

Democrats claimed this was a job to make jobs for 86,000 deserting Republicans. Congress sopped this by a provision in the new law which prohibits the secretary from placing any limit on the number of terms elected county committeemen may serve.

Pineapple Crown Cheese Cake Is a DeLuxe Dessert

PINEAPPLE CHEESE CROWN CAKE, made from a San Francisco recipe, is a de luxe party dessert.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

In her apartment on one of the hills of San Francisco, Esther Hall served us a remarkable cake. We lunched near a window that looked out toward the Pacific Ocean in the general direction of Hawaii—home of the pineapple.

Pineapple Crown Cheese Cake

One and one quarter cups fine graham cracker crumbs, 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 8-ounce packages cream cheese, 1 cup sugar, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 pint commercial sour cream, chilled pineapple tidbits, red currant jelly.

Sprinkle sides of a 9-inch, buttered spring form pan with 2 tablespoons of the crumbs. Mix together remaining crumbs, butter and sugar. Pack into bottom of pan. Let cream cheese soften at room temperature. Beat until fluffy. Gradually beat in sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each.

Fold in vanilla and room temperature sour cream. Pour over crumbs in pan. Bake in moderate oven, 375 degrees, 30 minutes. Turn off heat and allow cake to cool in oven about 1 hour. Chill.

At serving time, top with a crown of drained canned pineapple and dots of currant jelly. This is very, very rich, so small wedges are in order, perhaps with additional chilled pineapple.

While fresh cultivated blueberries are still in the market, have a good time with this New Jersey waffle recipe.

Blueberry Bason Waffles

(Yield: 8 medium waffles)

Two eggs, 1½ cups all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 1/3 cups milk, 1/2 cup (1 print) butter or margarine, melted, 1 cup blueberries, 6 slices crisp bacon, crumbled.

Beat eggs until foamy with rotary egg beater. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together into eggs. Add milk and beat smooth. Add melted butter or margarine and beat until batter is smooth. Fold in blueberries and bacon. Bake on a hot waffle iron, according to manufacturer's directions. Serve with butter or margarine and syrup.

TOMORROW'S DINNER. Scaloped frozen filets with shredded green pepper and grated Parmesan cheese, parsley potato balls, buttered beets, hard rolls, butter or margarine, romaine and sweet onion, and tomato salad. French dressing.

At serving time, top with a crown of drained canned pineapple and dots of currant jelly. This is very, very rich, so small wedges are in order, perhaps with additional chilled pineapple.

Carrying Excess Weight Is Asking for Trouble

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

There does not seem to be the slightest doubt that carrying more fat on the body than one should is dangerous to the health—as well as being unsightly.

There is also not the slightest doubt that an easy way to reduce is desired by all of those who are overweight.

E. F., for example, asks if there are any pills which one can take to get a slender figure and do no harm to the digestion.

The answer to the question of reducing is basically extremely simple: use will power to eat less, particularly of those foods which most readily turn into fat.

Many Reducing diets have been devised but I favor those which cause the individual to lose regularly and not too rapidly or too slowly. This will vary somewhat from person to person.

The important thing is that once devised it must be followed or the desired results will not occur.

Now to the health hazards of being overweight, a condition that is thought to exist in about one fifth of all people over the age of 30 in North America.

Here Are A Few things which the fat person faces. Among insured men, those who are overweight have a higher death rate than the average at every age, and the greater at every age, and the greater the degree of overweight the higher the risk.

It has been stated, for example, that for men 20 to 29 years old, the mortality of those 25 to 34 per cent overweight was 34 per cent above the general average, and approximately this same picture holds for other age groups, and for women as well as men.

But ill health as well as an increased chance of early death is more likely for an obese person. One study of 74,000 industrial workers showed that at every age and in both sexes, there was a steady increase in average blood pressure accompanying increase in body weight.

It Has Been found that among patients 40 years and over at the beginning of active signs of diabetes, 60 out of 100 were at least 20 per cent over the average weight.

It is impossible to list all of the disorders which are more common in fat people than in those who are normal, but here are a few: Gall-bladder disease, hernia, impairment of kidney functions and probably degenerative arthritis.

The course of pregnancy and childbearing is more complicated in the overweight than the underweight woman. An operation on an obese person presents special surgical difficulties.

Although the person who carries excess pounds is asking for trouble which could readily be avoided by exerting a little will power and eating less.

Friends who wrote you a note of dropped you a post card when they were away on their vacations will probably expect to hear from you when you leave town. The picture post card is an easy way of letting friends at home know that you are away.

It's a small gesture, but an important one.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the most difficult jobs of housekeeping is to keep linoleum and asphalt tile floors waxed and gleaming. Now thanks to Glaxo, it is no longer necessary to wax and scrub. All you do is apply Glaxo with a brush about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work plus truly a beautiful floor. Glaxo is available at Bomke Hardware Co.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.

Associated Press News Analyst

Several developments in the last few days serve to throw light on the differences in approach by the United States and Britain toward avoiding war with Russia.

The American Legion convention in Washington adopted a series of resolutions asking for immediate retaliation against any further Red aggression in Southeast Asia. No overemphasis on economy in the military program, a break in diplomatic relations with the Communist bloc and other direct action measures.

Greene County Couple Married At White Hall

WHITE HALL—Miss Joan Lou King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith D. King of Hillview and David Alan Ridings, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ridings of White Hall were united in marriage Sunday evening, August 29, at the Methodist church in White Hall. The Reverend B. D. Mallinson of Danville officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white glads and lavender colored asters and mums, palms and candelabra. Mrs. Herman Howard, soloist, sang "Because," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Adele Hudson was the organist and accompanist.

Miss Nancy Griswold of White Hall was the maid of honor. Junior attendants of the bride were Karen and K. D. King, twin sister and brother of the bride, who served as junior attendants, and lighted the candles at the altar.

Donald Coates of White Hall, classmate of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Jim Ridings, cousin of the bridegroom and John Earley, cousin of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin and Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice had a V neckline with long tapering sleeves. The tiered skirt of tulle fell entrain at the back. Her veil of sheer illusion was secured to a halo of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and yellow rosebuds. Her only jewel accessory was a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Griswold wore ballerina length yellow tulle over satin and carried lavender daisies. Her headband, matching the shade of her dress, was trimmed with pearls and veiling.

The junior attendant, Miss Karen King, wore pale green styled like the bride's gown and a headress trimmed with white daisies.

Mrs. King, mother of the bride, wore turquoise accessories with her black crepe white was also contrasted with a corsage of blue daisies. Mrs. Ridings, mother of the bridegroom, wore navy blue lace with lavender colored accessories and a corsage of lavender asters.

A reception was held in the church parlors where a five tiered wedding cake was cut and served to guests with punch. The cake was frosted in white and decorated with yellow roses, the color combination of yellow and green was attractively carried out in the serving. Miss Shirley King of Eldred and Miss Peggy King of Cincinnati, Ohio, served cake and Miss Martha Logan of Eldred, poured punch. Mrs. Robert Hurt, Champaign, cousin of the groom registered guests and a cousin, Linda Davis, was in charge of the gifts.

When the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in the northwest the bride was wearing for her going away costume a charcoal colored sheath dress with black accessories and the corsage taken from her wedding bouquet. After their wedding trip the couple will make their home at 1601 South Neal street in Champaign.

Mrs. Ridings graduated from the White Hall high school and was employed by Drs. Middleton and Rawlins in Alton. After Sept. 7 she will work for Drs. Gorman in Champaign. Mr. Ridings graduated from the White Hall high school and will be a junior at the University of Illinois this fall.

Special guests were the Reverend and Mrs. B. D. Mallinson of Danville.

Wash your children's seersucker or corduroy clothing soon after they are soiled. Allow the seersuckers to dry on a hanger. Corduroys do not have to be ironed.

At the same time the British press was commenting on two statements from high authorities. One was that a prolonged atomic war would kill everybody in the world. The other that Britain, to avoid war with Russia, must go the limit in armament.

The newspapers urged a fall-back on spiritual and moral sources for a way out of such a dilemma. It all was a part of the British feeling that war must be prevented at all costs.

In one way, however, British reaction to French scuttling of the European Defense Community this week has something of the American way about it. The British press has broadly though by no means unanimously accepted the idea that Britain, having avoided EDC, because, among other reasons, of its supranational concept, must now get her feet wet, even up to her neck, on the Continent.

The talk is of entering a treaty organization, tighter than NATO but looser than EDC, which would permit France to participate in the rearming of Germany without fear that Germany would dominate the project. Inclusion of the Scandinavian countries is suggested.

Thus the British do agree with the United States that broad defense measures are essential to prevention of war.

But they will not agree to the drawing of lines beyond which the Reds can step only by inviting war. British officials, asked how far they would go in supporting the United States in the event of war, have told me that they will not consider anything except preventing war entirely. Americans are more willing to consider that, eventually, the Reds may go too far. That seems to be the big difference.

Following routine reports on summertime activities, plans for the Grotto family picnic were outlined. This annual September activity will be held at Nichols Park on Sunday, Sept. 19. Dinner will be served the members and their families and guests at 6 o'clock in the dining pavilion. Entertainment will follow the picnic supper. Each family attending is asked to furnish two covered dishes and their own table service. The Grotto will furnish the meat, bread, drinks and dessert.

Orville Ing is chairman of the event, with Bob Jameson, Glenn Heidinger and Bill Crozer on his committee. Russell Armstrong is in charge of the program. All members and their families are invited to attend.

An invitation to the Illinois State Grotto Association annual convention which is to be in Decatur was read. The convention will open at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, Oct. 16. Those interested in attending are to contact Ed Jackson.

The fall ceremonial of Ghezah Grotto, Quincy, will be held on Oct. 2 and the Mid-West Grotto Association annual convention will be in Peoria on Sept. 24 and 25. Any members desiring to attend either meeting are asked to contact Ed Jackson. The local fall ceremonial will be held on Saturday, Oct. 26, the program for which will be announced in the near future.

Smoked Hams And Turkeys Are Best Buys This Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Smoked hams and turkeys, will take top billing in food stores of the nation on the upcoming Labor Day weekend. Reductions will range up to 10 cents a pound from week-ago prices.

Legs of lamb will be another popular special, with prices down a couple of cents a pound. Fryers also will be featured in many markets.

And you'll probably find lower pork prices in your store, reflecting sharp declines in hog prices.
The popular pork loin roast will be offered at lower prices in many areas, and pork chops, long on the expensive side, will be off rather sharply. One large chain plans these reductions in pork chop prices from a week ago: 4 cents a pound in Jacksonville and Pittsburgh, 6 cents in Philadelphia, 8 cents in Washington, 10 cents in New York, Boston, Chicago and Detroit and 14 cents in Los Angeles.

What's more, meat specialists report that you can look for still lower pork prices after Labor Day.
The latest drop in the wholesale market has not yet been reflected at retail.

Wholesale beef prices were higher this week, and at retail prices held unchanged or advanced a couple of cents a pound. That old standby, chuck roast, still is considered a bargain by food men, however. Veal also offers good value, they say.

The list of "good buys" among vegetables are sweet potatoes, cauliflower, celery, lettuce, and beans, say produce men.

Coffee is getting cheaper all the time. Last week, leading chains dropped prices a dime a pound, and now further cuts are being made on a sectional basis. Some chains in Ohio have cut prices on their brands by another 10 cents, and a similar move is underway in the New York area.

Volunteers Help Passavant With New Regulations

Since new visiting hours and restrictions on the number of visitors in patients' room have been in effect at the Passavant Memorial Area Hospital, there has been a need for additional help in reception work in the hospital lobby. This obligation has fallen under the supervision of the Ladies Aid Society. Mrs. Herbert Lee, chairman of the volunteers who include aid members, Grey Ladies, and those not belonging to any of the hospital's auxiliary societies, reports the new procedure a success in every way.

The visiting hours for patients (not maternity cases) are from 2 in the afternoon until 4 and in the evening from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Only two visitors are allowed in the room for each patient. Hours for visiting new mothers are from 3:30 to 4 in the afternoon and from 7 to 8:30 in the evening.

A receptionist is always on duty in the downstairs lobby with a card file with each patient's name and room number. Each visitor to the hospital is questioned as to whom they wish to see. If the patient does not have over two visitors in his or her room the inquiring visitor will be admitted. If a patient does have the specified number of visitors the inquiring visitor must await his turn.

"HUNTER-KILLER"—For the first time the public will see the Navy's tandem-rotor antisubmarine helicopter (HSL-1) at the National Aircraft Show at Dayton, Ohio. The "hunter-killer" is equipped with the latest dipping type sonar gear and lightweight homing armament for both detection and destruction of enemy subs. It can operate in all types of weather for 3½ hours. The HSL-1 can fly about 138 mph or stand still in mid-air with ease.

The new hours make easier the work of the hospital maintenance crew who formerly were hindered with visitors in and out patients rooms at all hours. Employees now find they have the time to complete their required work within regulation hours.

Those who volunteered for reception work during the month of August were Mrs. James Cash, who has served as an able assistant to Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Wilford Queen, Mrs. Edward Wild of Winchester, Mrs. Arthur Perbix of Chapin, Mrs. G. G. Sturm, Mrs. T. Ray Baker, Mrs. George Carpenter, Mrs. J. E. Dinwiddie, Mrs. M. H. Abbott, Mrs. Harry Massey, Mrs. P. J. David-meyer, Mrs. William Herring of Winchester, Mrs. Ivan Garrison, Mrs. Harry Killam, Mrs. Harold Perbix, Miss Mary Mellett, Miss Fern Haigh, Mrs. Fred Carter, Mrs. Rex Stein, Mrs. Myron Mills, Mrs. J. Alden Ryan, Mrs. Elizabeth Cole, Mrs. Arvell Knapp, Harriett Lee, Mrs. Herbert Lee, Mrs. William Douglas and Mrs. M. A. Summers.

The whales now being killed commercially are largely of a species so swift and strong that old time whalers could not cope with them.

Dean Hildner Of I.C. Elected To Head Conference

At the closing session of the 8th annual summer conference of Academic Deans held at Oklahoma A & M, Stillwater, Okla., Dean Ernest G. Hildner of Illinois College was elected chairman of the next annual summer conference to be held in Stillwater in August, 1955. W. Francis English, dean of the Arts College of the University of Missouri, was elected vice-chairman.

The conference theme will be "The Dean in Initiating and Shaping Institutional Policy."

The planning committee, working with Dr. Hildner and Dean English, are Dean Dysinger of MacMurray College, immediate past chairman; Dean Walter W. Hansen and Dr. Homer Knight, Oklahoma A & M; Dean Hugh R. Beverage, Monmouth College; Dean J. Geoffrey Moore, Franklin College, Indiana, and Dean E. R. McCartney, Fort Hays State College, Kansas.

The cattle egret, a member of the heron family native to Spain, Africa and the warmer regions of Asia, has recently migrated to the United States.

4 Important Reasons why you should buy a PONTIAC

RIGHT NOW!

1 Pontiac is One of the Greatest Cars Ever Built!

Match today's Pontiac with America's finest cars and you'll get a dramatic picture of Pontiac value. First of all, Pontiac is big—bigger, in fact, than many cars costing hundreds of dollars more. Pontiac is beautiful—with its distinctive Silver Streak styling. Inside, you'll find genuine fine-car luxury and appointments—along with the roominess and comfort that come only with a long wheelbase. But the big surprise comes when you test Pontiac's performance. See how alert it is to every demand in traffic, how it handles and corners almost without effort, how it takes to the open road with plenty of power to spare and saves money every mile.

2 Pontiac has the Best Resale Value in its Price Class!

Along with all its fine-car size, luxury and performance, Pontiac has a very special attribute no car at any price can beat—its unsurpassed reputation for year-in, year-out dependability. Pontiac's carefree, economical long life and its proved record of amazingly low maintenance expense are so widely known and acknowledged that it commands the highest resale value in its price class. Because Pontiac is America's most desirable used car, your original investment comes back in greater measure when you trade, making ownership cost even lower.

3 Pontiac is Priced Just Above the Lowest!

After you've convinced yourself of Pontiac's value, after you've considered all the good things you've heard about its dependability—see and compare it dollar-wise. Despite the fact it's a fine car in every sense of the term, it's priced so near the lowest that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac.

4 We'll Make You a Deal You Can't Afford to Miss!

Right now we're making such liberal trade-in allowances that you just can't afford to pass up the greatest opportunity you ever had to become a fine-car owner. Come in and get the facts.

Close Bridge On Old State Road To Make Repairs

Local Retail Clerks Picket Two Groceries

A program described as "friendly picketing in hopes of increasing membership" was launched here Thursday morning by Jacksonville Local 517, Retail Clerks International association, AFL.

At 8 a. m. single pickets were placed at the two Jacksonville Foods Super Mart stores, 1417 S. Main street and 704 N. Main street. The pickets carried placards stating that the employees of the firm were not connected with the local.

Nathan R. Klein of Litchfield is in charge of the campaign. He is business agent of the local and financial secretary of Springfield Local 1096.

"I have been sent here to assist with organization work by the International president and secretary at Washington. At present all we contemplate is to advertise that certain grocery stores are not union stores. Most of the picketing will be done by members on their day off.

"We are not trying to tie up anything, and are not asking other unions employed in the stores to walk out. That is entirely up to them. But we wish to let members of all unions, delivermen, the general public, etc., know that we are striving to enlist retail clerks into our union."

He said "about 60" retail clerks in Jacksonville belong to the union now. Some members, however, set the figure at 42.

Earl Terwische, manager of the two supermarkets picketed Thursday, said "the union has been trying to organize our stores for about three years. But our employees are paid more than the union scale and each vote taken by our employees has resulted in a better 2-1 decision to stay out."

Union meat cutters at both stores stayed on the job Thursday.

Greene County Couple Wed At Baptist Church

CARROLLTON—The wedding of Miss Margaret Pfleger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pfleger of this city and Frank Gansz of White Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Gansz of Kampsville, took place Saturday at 7 p.m. in the parlors of the local Baptist church.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Glenn Manis pastor of the church. Attendants at the wedding were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pfleger.

Mr. and Mrs. Gansz plan to make their home on a farm near White Hall.

Downstate County Officers Will Get Raises In Salaries

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Downstate Illinois counties are getting ready to revise salaries of their sheriffs, county clerks and several other elective officers. Mainly, raises are on tap.

With some exceptions, the new pay scales will be determined by county boards, or commissioners—in most cases at annual meetings Sept. 14. They will go into effect when officers elected Nov. 2 enter on their terms in December.

Generally, the forthcoming salary changes represent the caboose on a train of events started in 1951. Then, the Legislature proposed to delete outmoded salary ceilings for county fee officers from the 1870 state Constitution.

The constitutional amendment was ratified in November 1952. Last year, the Legislature established new salary ranges, leaving the exact figure to the decision of county boards.

The new salaries probably won't be determined until October or November for counties on a December fiscal year.

As a result of the constitutional change, salaries will be revised effective this December for the offices of sheriff, treasurer, county clerk and, in the larger counties, probate clerk. They will be reshuffled in December 1956 for the offices of coroner, clerk of Circuit Court, auditor and, in the larger counties, recorder of deeds.

The changeover comes in two phases because of a constitutional provision prohibiting an increase or a decrease in salary during the term for which an officer is elected.

Judge Salaries Higher

County judges and probate judges elected Nov. 2 will get more than their predecessors. The exact amount of increase was specified last year by the Legislature, and county boards have nothing to say about it. As against present salary range of $3,600 to $9,500 a year, depending on county population, judges elected this fall will draw from $4,200 to $11,200 annually.

The old maximums for the eight fee officers ranged from $1,500 a year in counties under 20,000 population to $4,000 in counties of over 100,000 residents. But there were two exceptions.

County boards that chose were permitted to pay their sheriff an additional $1,500 to $4,000 a year, according to county size, as county-supervisor of safety. The option to do this will remain. The second exception affected county clerks, who county boards were obliged by law to pay an extra $1,500 to $4,000 annually as clerk of County Court.

The 1953 Legislature repealed the mandatory second source of pay for county clerks, and set up these salary brackets for all eight fee offices:

Sliding Scale For Clerks
Counties under 30,000 population, $4,000 to $6,000; 30,000 to 60,000, from $5,500 to $7,500; 60,000 to 100,000, from $6,000 to $9,000; 100,000 to 150,000, from $7,000 to $10,000; 150,000 to 250,000, from $7,000 to $11,000.

Thus, if a county in the highest population category decided to, it could set the sheriff's compensation as high as $15,000 a year—$11,000 for basic salary, and $4,000 as safety supervisor. None of the other fee officers could draw more than $11,000.

A major restrictive factor will operate on the pay actually received by the fee officers, at least in the smaller counties, regardless of the salary settled on by the county board.

No fee officer may lawfully be paid in excess of fees collected by his office. For example, a coroner in a small county where few deaths occur might collect only a few hundred dollars in fees during the year, and as a practical matter this would determine his pay—even though the county board by resolution established it at $4,000 annually.

Legislature Ups Fees

In anticipation of the dependence of the county officers on their fees for any increase in pay actually received, the 1953 Legislature increased the fees for a multitude of services performed by the various county officers. The higher fees have been in effect over a year.

Relatively small extra drains on county general funds are certain to stem from the impending pay boosts for county and probate judges. Otherwise, the additional burden on a county's treasury will depend on the level at which fee officers' salaries are pegged by the board of supervisors. Fees collected by an office in excess of the amount required to maintain it are deposited in the general fund.

in every room!

JUST LIKE A FURNACE... BUT WITHOUT ALL THE COSTLY DIRT COLLECTING PIPES AND REGISTERS

SIEGLER

has TWO heatmakers working together on ONE fire to heat every room in your home!

HEATMAKER No. 1

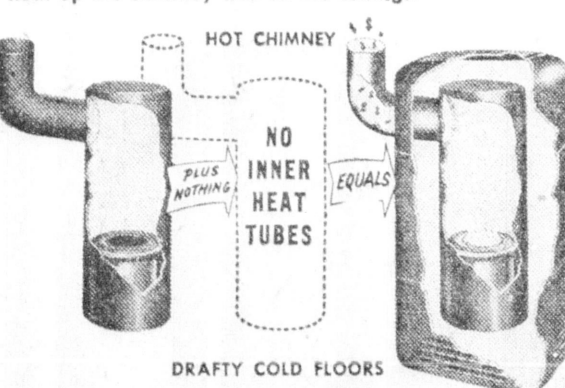

PLUS HEATMAKER No. 2
The powered-air, inner heat tubes. Room air is forced through the heart of the hottest fire... and poured over your floors.

Tropical Floor Heat

QUICKLY GETS TO THE BOTTOM OF THE COLD FLOOR PROBLEM

But ORDINARY HEATERS cannot and do not give you warm floor heating in every room because they waste heat up the chimney and on the ceilings.

Sieglar is not a space heater that wastes heat forcing you to live in one or two rooms with cold floors.

Sieglar is not a central heating plant with expensive installations!

SIEGLER is the revolutionary method of WARM FLOOR HEATING in every room! BUT WITHOUT PIPES AND REGISTERS!

SIEGLER PAYS FOR ITSELF AGAIN AND AGAIN WITH THE FUEL IT SAVES.

THE HEATER WITH THE PATENTED INNER HEAT TUBES

AND LOOK—don't let BTU Ratings confuse you! There is BTU INPUT... there is BTU OUTPUT, but what keeps your family warm is BTU USEFUL... the working BTU's that heat your home! In BTU USEFUL Sieglar OUTHEATS 'EM ALL! A 50,000 BTU Sieglar gives more USABLE HEAT than much higher rated ordinary heaters. A 75,000 BTU Sieglar furnace-volume heater can only be compared to a central heating plant.
